Top 10 Most Wanted member apprehended

Mauricio Geovany Rosales, DOB 5-26-85, who had been on the Texas DPS 10 Most Wanted list since September 2006, was arrested just after midnight on Monday, Feb. 15, by U.S. Customs and Border Protection officers at the Ysleta International crossing in El Paso. Rosales had been wanted for two counts of murder, aggravated assault with a deadly weapon and aggravated assault.

Texas Crime Stoppers will give up to a $1,000 cash reward to any person who provides information that leads to the arrest of one of these fugitives. Anyone with information about the whereabouts of any of these fugitives should call 1-800-252-TIPS (8477). The Crime Stoppers hotline is open 24 hours a day. You do not have to give your name when calling.

DPS urges caution around these fugitives.

“Any fugitive should be considered armed and dangerous,” said Steven C. McCraw, DPS director. “You should never attempt to apprehend these fugitives yourself.”

For more information on specific fugitives or the crimes they are accused of, please contact the local police department in the area where the fugitive was last seen.

Here is a list of the remaining Top 10 Fugitives:
